

RELOCATION SERVICES

If you are relocating to or from the North Bay, we can help.

Whether you're planning a move to our neighborhood from The Peninsula, New York, or London — or you're a long-time resident transferring to a new place outside of our region, we have Relocation Services ready to help make the process smoother and more efficient. Through our affiliation with RELO Direct® we're connected with the top relocation network in the world.

From San Francisco and the Golden Gate Bridge, to Marin, Napa and Sonoma, the North Bay is profoundly beautiful and offers a lifestyle that is unlike any other in the world. Our roots here stretch back to the turn of the century, and we've called it home ever since. Working and living here for nearly 100 years gives us a unique perspective and allows us to present this world-class North Bay lifestyle from an insider's point of view. Our in-depth connections to local communities, and strong relationships with national and worldwide networks of relocation experts makes it possible for us to serve our customers well, regardless of whether they are moving to or from our home base.

Finding the right community and the right home.

The long-standing and deep connections we have with North Bay communities gives us unique insights into North Bay features and resources. Moving to a new place is largely about discovering what is most important to you and your family. We begin by asking the right questions and creating a plan that will work for your individual move. There may be several suitable locations that meet your needs, but usually, there are some communities that quickly rise to the top of the list when good research and knowledge is applied.

We're well connected locally, nationally and globally.

Frank Howard Allen maintains strong relationships with relocation experts throughout the nation and the world. We're a member of the Employee Relocation Council and work with dozens of top relocation agencies and organizations. We are known as the North Bay real estate experts to our contemporaries in this community. We receive referrals often, and refer our customers to appropriate third-party professionals whenever it is appropriate. Our direct connection with The Realty Alliance, RELO Direct and dominant brokers in other markets, makes it possible for us to confidently refer you to resources that can provide the kind of high quality service you've come to expect from us.
